New Business

- Vote on minutes of 12/9/19 Trustees Meeting
- The library received the Verification for the State Aid compliance from the MBLC for FY 20. The initial check for $16,560.00 is being electronically transmitted.
- Vote on policy language and associated documents for homebound delivery.
- July Siebecker applied for cultural council Grant to support Children's Programming.
- July applied for and was awarded a grant from the MBLC to obtain software essential for the upcoming Summer Reading Program.
- The ESL conversation group is going well.
- I acquired a new database; AtoZ Food USA.
- MBLC / MLS are providing new statewide databases starting 1/1/20 including Opposing Viewpoints (currently paid for by our library – we will get an account credit from Gale.) Heritage Quest is being added as well complementing Ancestry.
- Garrett and I had an initial meeting to develop an Emergency Evacuation Plan. I will be reaching out to the Ludlow Police Department for further input and advice.
- I had Grodsky repair a hardware component that part of the boiler software controls – approximately $2750.00

Old Business

- The parking lot addition should happen in FY 20.
